

Introduction to Quannessence Skincare

Quannessence Skincare, in partnership with Maritime Beauty Supply

Instructor: Bobbie Jo MacDonald

Dip your toes in the Quannessence professional skincare brand through our introductory presentation covering its background, retail product knowledge, and product benefits. Quannessence's holistic approach ensures that the skin's natural beauty and harmony are enhanced while enhancing the skin's health. By utilizing specialty protocols and potent plant botanicals, peptides, and nutrients, Quannessence products paired with treatments target specific skin conditions on multiple layers of the skin for optimal corrective management.

This training course provides you with extensive product knowledge, theory, and sales tips. If you want to dive deeper into the brand and professional protocols, the second half of the day will dive into specialty protocols, a Quannessence-certified educator's facial demonstration, and hands-on training and experience. In order to qualify to take this portion of training, you need to become a verified Quannessence professional through the purchase of the Quannessence Pro Essential Kit. Contact us to learn more!
